

2024 Pocono Chamber Women in Business Scholarship Program Continued Education Application

The Pocono Chamber of Commerce's Women's Business Council's mission is guiding, teaching, and supporting women in business so they can be their authentic selves, feeling confident and powerful in the workplace!

The Scholarship Opportunity

The Pocono Chamber Women in Business Scholarship recognizes Monroe County female professionals who have demonstrated their dedication to empowering the leaders of our community and their commitment to bettering our community. The scholarship assists women in their pursuit of continuing their education and their desire to assist other women in reaching their full leadership potential after they finish continuing their education.

Professional Scholarship General Criteria

The recipient of the scholarship must:

- Have demonstrated community service (for example school, faith-based or civic organizations, or employers).
- Will be attending an accredited college or university educational program during the following academic year.
- Be a resident of Monroe County, Pennsylvania.
